Romulus notes decrease in instances of burglary

By DALE GOWING
Of The Roman Staff

While crime — especially burglary — is experiencing a steady increase throughout the nation, officials in Romulus are boasting a zero increase in breaking and entering (B-and-E's) in the last three months.

That's the indication from official Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) crime statistics, which show Romulus as having four less B-and-E's from August to the present than the city experienced during the same period in 1973.

However, in the first nine months of 1974, burglaries in the city rose in number in accordance with national averages. Across the nation, there was a 16 per cent increase in all crimes since January, while Romulus figures show the city up by more than 80 reported offenses compared to the same period in 1973.

BUT TO Romulus officials concerned with ridding the community of its crime-flavored image, further tarnished by the dumping there of three Detroit murder victims during the last year, the current leveling-off of burglaries affords the city a chance to wipe the slate clean.

"We're holding our own, and that's almost unheard of these days," said Mayor Terry L. Troutt. "Things are starting to look pretty good here; not good, but better than the national average anyway."

He credited the curbing of B-and-E offenses to the city's recently-acquired detail of two detectives and a juvenile officer from the Wayne County Sheriff's Department Road Patrol. The crime fighters opened their Romulus bureau Aug. 1 and triggered the decline in burglaries, he said.

The plainclothes detectives have concentrated on burglaries and similar crimes in the city while letting the road patrol handle homicides and robberies. The trio works all hours — particularly nights — and credits much of their success in lessening the B-and-E volume to their nights cruising in unmarked cars.

"ROMULUS never had that before," said Det. John Johnson. "Night cruising and our being able to do extensive investigation have really helped things. It would be impossible, though, without the sheriff's patrol taking over the other crime areas. That's been one of the biggest factors."

The city's current crime figures show the positive effect of the police work, but they also indicate the overall rise in B-and-Es for the year.

For the first nine months of 1974, Romulus had 135 business break-ins and 314 home burglaries. For the same period last year, the city had 113 business and 271 home burglaries.

In burglaries in other categories — for example, garages — the rate is up by 19 from last year.

A FAVORABLE trend is developing in the homicide rate, figures showed. Since January, there have been three homicides compared to four in the same period in 1973.

And to add to the pleasant knowledge of decreasing crime in Romulus, a city of 24,000 people, further indication is that crimes committed in the city are often done by outsiders.

"Most of our crime is transient," said Johnson. "They just drop in off the expressway. It's a beautiful setup for them. They drop in, pull a B-and-E and they're gone before you know it."

Because of the easy access to I-94, statistics show that 75 per cent of adult arrests in Romulus involve non-residents.

Airport suit delayed Attorneys' meeting cancelled

District Court officials in Detroit estimate that it may be "a couple more months" yet before a hearing date is set on the Detroit Metropolitan Airport suit case brought by Romulus.

A scheduled meeting between attorneys representing Wayne County and Romulus last Friday was cancelled. A hearing date was expected to be set then.

An aide to District Court Judge Cornelia G. Kennedy, who is handling the case, said attorneys for both parties are continuing to take depositions, or sworn testimony, from case witnesses. He said a tentative date for completing the depositions is Dec. 1.

THE LAWSUIT brought against the county by the City of Romulus, Romulus Community School District and homeowner Fouad Berry began in July when the Romulus parties elected to challenge a runway expansion program at the airport. The airport is operated by the Wayne County Road Commission.

California attorney Jerrold A. Fadern, representing the Romulus groups in the suit, maintains his position of being "very confident" that a stop-work order will be handed down against the county and airport.

Berry, one of the parties in the suit, said Fadern plans to ask Judge Kennedy to set a December hearing date, and that "by January we ought to have the injunction."

Fadern is scheduled to take a deposition from federal aviation officials in Washington D.C. Nov. 4-5, Berry said.

CONSTRUCTION on the runway, in the meantime, continues, but Fadern assured area residents that the court can stop it regardless of its stage of completion.

"It's natural that the people would be down when seeing that the construction is continuing," Berry asserted. "But Mr. Fadern is assuring them that the court can still stop it. He said we have a very strong case."

Berry said Fadern is mailing Romulus city and school officials an updated report of the injunction proceedings.

Fire fighters teach children year-round safety

By MAUREEN RADEMACHER
Of The Roman Staff

During the past few weeks the firefighters of Romulus have been teaching the children of the city how to prevent fires, a project that began as an observance of National Fire Prevention Week but will not stop there.

"This is going to be a 52-week-out-of-the-year project," said Lt. Charles Witt, organizer of the fire prevention program. "We're not going to limit it to one week out of the year."

All the elementary schools, as well as community organizations and religious groups, will be reached in the effort to stop fires before they start, Witt explained.

The concentration has been on elementary schools at first, particularly kindergarten through third grade, because the age group is so receptive and ready to learn, he added.

"We find that if we can catch the kids in kindergarten through third grade each year, these are the kids that are the most impressionable," said Fire Chief John Wilhide Jr. "If we can get little kids to watch for fire hazards in the home we're going to eliminate a lot of fires."

The fire prevention program includes a film and talk by fire fighters on fire hazards and safety. The presentation includes a race between two students to get into the fire fighter's outfit of boots, coat and helmet and then a trip outside to look at the fire engine while the firemen explain its functioning.

Participating in the program in the schools this year have been 11 fire fighters beside Witt. They are Capt. Dan Wicker and fire fighters Roscoe Smith, Don Schroeder, Bob Milatz, Gene Harbensi, Bob Straight, Phil Neal, Robert Beedle, Bill Fralick, George Witkovsky and Jim Poet.

Each station conducted the programs for schools in its own area. Wilhide said this is the first year the school program has been conducted on a large scale, and next year ought to be even "bigger and better."

Freeway construction to last for at least two more years

At least two more years of construction on I-275 through Romulus can be expected by residents who have been caused minor — and sometimes major — inconveniences by the building process. Michigan Highway department officials estimate that the freeway's southern portion, from Ford Road in Canton Township south to Sibley Road north of Monroe in Monroe County, will not open to traffic until late 1976.

The northern portion of the project, from Ford Road north to I-696 and I-96, is expected to open this December.

The southern link, which cuts directly through Romulus enroute to a link-up with the I-75 freeway near Monroe, is costing taxpayers about $25 million, according to Frank Simmons, administrative assistant in the highway department's metropolitan division. He said the cost of the northern portion, from Ford to I-96 is about $19.5 million.

Simmons explained that current work in the Romulus segment and further south involves bridge construction and roadbed grading, preliminary to paving. He said paving would not begin until next August.

Meanwhile, the highway department is also putting the finishing touches on a renovation project of westbound I-94 from Wayne Road to the Wayne County line at Rawsonville Road. Simmons added that the expressway is being relocated north of its present location, and the eastbound lanes will be "moved" in 1975.

He said the total relocating effort is costing $28.7 million.

Community Mart ends season

Pleased with their first-year efforts, organizers of the Romulus Community Mart plan a festive schedule for the mart's final Saturday of operation in 1974 on Oct. 26.

Beverly McAnally, chairman of the mart's organizing committee, said the year's final market day in the city hall-library complex parking lot will be highlighted by a picnic lunch for all merchants who have had booth displays during the 15-week run of the mart.

In addition, sellers will be given free booth space on the last Saturday.

Mrs. McAnally, Romulus mayor pro tem, said 110 permits were sold to 30 merchants for the first 15 weeks of the mart, which began in July. All persons who sold goods at the mart are invited to the picnic lunch Oct. 26 and are asked to "bring a dish to pass," said Mrs. McAnally.

Although the day will mark the close of the mart for the winter season, planning for its second season will keep organizers busy through the winter, she added.

"We'll be meeting with the recreation department during the winter to work on details of next year's mart, and we plan to speak to clubs to encourage them to set up booths," she explained.

She called the initial season of the mart a definite success.

"You really can't lose money when it doesn't cost you anything," Mrs. McAnally mused. Merchants paid a small fee each week for booth space. "We've had people from all over Western Wayne County come to the mart during the summer. Our goal has been to bring people into Romulus other than just for them to leave again, and we think we've accomplished that."

To service area

Food company opens outlet

A new Servomation Corp. facility serving the Detroit District of the firm's North Central Division opened

Monday in Romulus, company officials have stated. Servomation, one of the nation's largest food and refreshment service organizations, which provides both vended and manual food services in 41 states and Canada, is serving the Detroit area from the new office at 29411 Beverly.

The 30,000-square-foot complex, replacing the former operating center in Ypsilanti, includes a commissary, warehouse, maintenance department and offices. Approximately 150 employees of the Ypsilanti plant are moving into the new facility.

Robert A. Jacobson, recently-appointed general manager of the Detroit district, said the 5-acre Romulus complex will service factories, offices, schools, hospitals and banks throughout the Greater Detroit area. He said the center features "modern food preparation equipment, ample refrigerated storage space and a superbly efficient distribution system."

Before heading the Detroit District, Jacobson served as general manager of Servomation's Moline District in Illinois.

Cauldrons bubble in haunted house

Witches, goblins and boiling cauldrons, these are haunting days in Romulus.

Beginning Sunday at noon and continuing through Thursday night, the Romulus Jaycee Haunted House will be open to daring youngsters—and oldsters—for a 50-cent charge.

The house, loaned to the Jaycees for the annual Halloween exhibit, is located on the south side of Van Born at Howe Road. Inside the spooky 1-story house will be nearly every horrifying monster imaginable including the terrifying Willard the Rat, Jaycee organizers said.

Hours for the haunted house are noon to 9 p.m. Sunday and 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Co-chairmen of the project are Willie Hester and Dwayne Montgomery.

For snowmobiles

City maps out trails

Snowmobiling, a winter sport rage across the nation, has successfully flexed its recreational muscles in Romulus.

The growing number of snowmobile riders in the city prompted the city fathers and recreation department to provide the riding enthusiasts with a safe, organized and interesting system of trails to roar over during the snowy months ahead, which now are in their final stages of completion.

"All we need now is the snow," said Romulus Recreation Department Director Marie DeBuyscher while analyzing the readiness of the new snowmobile course at the Beverly-Henry Ruff Park (Romulus Park No. 1). "THE TRAILS are ready and all that is left is a possible project to 'bank' some of the turns," she added.

The course, which will consist of three trails, will total just over two miles in length, according to Jim Radford of the Romulus Department of Public Works (DPW), which developed the trails.

A large trail about one-and-a-half miles long will encircle the park while two small trails each about one-half mile long wind through the inside, he explained. The trails cover a 95-acre parcel of land at the park and are surrounded by a fence.

Eighty acres are being leased from Wayne County at a nominal cost of $1 per month, Mrs. DeBuyscher noted. The remaining 15 acres constitute city land.

RADFORD SAID the DPW will construct banked turns on four corners of the long trail if the city can obtain the necessary dirt. "Construction" of the trails actually consisted of clearing brush and cutting the paths through the land, "to generally make it safe for riding and to remove obstacles."

Radford said the project began two weeks ago.

When enough snow finally does come to enable riders to take the covers off their machines, they will be able to spend the day churning over the trails for about a $1.50 charge, Mrs. DeBuyscher continued. Riders will have an option to purchase a yearly permit at a yet-to-be-determined cost.

In addition, there will be a warming building where the snowmobilers can escape the cold, and heated restrooms, Mrs. DeBuyscher concluded.

Group plans day to horse around

A horse show and "fun day" will be sponsored Saturday by the Romulus Horseman's Association, at the Herbert Allen Farm, 26847 Beverly Road, between Middlebelt and Inkster.

Activities will consist of a horse show by the association's membership and races and games between contestants. The races include a flag race, egg and spoon race, barrel race, ride-a-buck, down-and-back, costume class, chug-a-lug, rope race and a "mystery" event. All races are for two classes, 12-and-younger and 13-and-older.

Association members will be charged a 25-cent entry fee, while non-members will be charged 50 cents. Spectators will be admitted free.

The activities begin at 1 p.m., and will be postponed until Nov. 3 in the event of rain. Additional information may be obtained by calling Charlotte McBride at 729-6932.

Sometimes it takes a problem to bring people together and let them know that they care about each other.

When First Lady Betty Ford underwent surgery to remove her breast recently, thousands of well-wishers sent get-well cards, and letters of encouragement, including Romulus resident Sandra Van Buren, who had similar surgery a few years ago.

Mrs. Van Buren received a reply last week from the First Family, signed by both Mrs. Ford and the President.

"They really do care about hearing from ordinary persons," Mrs. Van Buren said. Recupercating from recent surgery herself, Mrs. Van Buren said it "gave me a lift" to get the prompt and thankful reply.

Levin explains '50th of 50' claim

In explaining his claim that the State of Michigan ranks 50th among states receiving federal aid, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Sander M. Levin has said that his opponent, incumbent Gov. William G. Milliken, "knows how badly Michigan has been handled and how badly it's been handling itself in Washington."

In response to a question in which the two candidates differ on the state's rank in receiving federal aid, Levin countered the governor's statement that Michigan is sixth in funds received, saying: "I make mistakes, but the governor is wrong in this case. First of all, figures indicate that Michigan sends in $13 billion and gets back $7. In terms of what we send in compared to what we get back, we're last, dead last."

"I think we ought to try a Democratic governor with a Democratic Congress for a few years... and a president from Michigan... to see if we can't do better. I'm convinced that Michigan can do better with a more aggressive leadership, a closer liaison with the members of Congress."

QUESTION: Proposal B on the November ballot would authorize the state to borrow $205 million through general obligation bonds to provide bonuses for veterans of Vietnam and other conflicts who served between Jan. 1, 1961, and Sept. 1, 1974. The impact on the 1975-76 budget is estimated at about $6 million. Would this fall into the category of unnecessary spending under your concept of budget control? Also, do you feel the budget would further permit Civil Service pay increases and other spending increases that accrue naturally to public and private institutions without an increase in taxes?

ANSWER: "First I favor Proposal B. It will cost about $6 million in the next fiscal year. But I think it is important for us to support Proposal B. Veterans in previous instances have received state assistance."

Editor's note: This is an exclusive campaign interview of Democratic gubernatorial candidate Sander M. Levin by members of the staff of the Panax-owned Macomb Daily, based in Mt. Clemens. It was conducted by editors Mitch Kehetian and Murray Vincent and reporters Marilyn Maloney, Butch Sapp and John Howes. It follows an earlier interview with Republican Gov. William G. Milliken. Kehetian formerly was the editor Enterprise-Roman.

"As I understand we are one of the few states which have not acted on this kind of bonus for veterans of the Vietnam War. That war was controversial. But thousands died and thousands survived and came back home. I think whatever one's feelings about the merits or demerits of that war, our veterans should not be penalized and should receive a similar bonus system as was received by veterans of previous wars."

"As to the Civil Service pay increases and other spending increases, let me suggest that in the next fiscal year we are going to face a major crunch. I believe that we are going to have to go into a period of careful spending. It is going to have to be a period where every service provided by the state is totally re-examined."

"I have been very critical of the governor for the short-changing that Michigan undergoes on our federal tax dollars. The facts are clear. We ship $13 billion annually to Washington. We receive back $7.2 billion. That's 54 cents on the dollar."

"I intend as governor to pursue Michigan's interest in Washington. There is no reason why we should be so badly shortchanged. It is not all the governor's fault, but partly it is the result of unaggressive, weak leadership expressing Michigan's interest in Washington."

QUESTION: Under the present administration, Michigan has won acclaim for being a leader among state in providing environmental protection. Laws have been enacted to protect the Great Lakes shorelines, natural rivers, wildlife areas. At the same time, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has been expanded to include agencies with environmental concerns. If you are elected governor, how do you propose to improve Michigan's environmental situation?

ANSWER: "First, Michigan has a good record in environment. I was part of a legislature in 1965 and 1966 which passed the first rough anti-pollution laws in the state. That legislature really set the pace. Michigan's been following that example ever since."

"I believe the governor should set the tone and I intend to be reasonable but to be tough about protection of the environment."

"One last thing that I am determined to do is to make the DNR more sensitive to the views of citizens. One reason that the department has trouble getting its programs through the legislature, and it does despite valiant efforts by environmentalists, is because the DNR has thumbed its nose at citizen attitudes. Its been arrogant."

QUESTION: Many local police officers think that regional or even statewide police operations (something more inclusive than the state police) are the thing of the future. Do you agree?

ANSWER: "Basically, I don't. I have spent a lot of time in local communities, especially Western Wayne County. I'm persuaded that people in our communities want their police to be kept local. The people feel that police function has a vital impact on their lives and they want control over that function."

"Now, there are some police activities that can't be handled completely by a local community. The same is true of fire. There can be a fire that requires help of more than one fire brigade or fire fighting facility in the city. The same can be true obviously of law and order problems."

"But there I think the answer is a pattern of voluntary cooperation among the local police departments. That's been working from what I saw in Western Wayne County communities. I spent a lot of time talking to policemen about it and the feeling is that cooperation, when necessary among departments, can handle the problems that spill over local bounds."

QUESTION: In a recent interview, you told newsmen you would fire William Rosenberg, chairman of the Public Service Commission, for failing to monitor utilities — and for allowing the utility firms to pass along rate hikes to the consumer. The utility firms claim they cannot meet service and expansion demands without the rate hike route. What suggestion, or action, do you offer to Michigan's utility firms in overcoming the power dilemma that the forecasters are sounding?

ANSWER: "I saw that series and I am glad to have this chance to say my words."

"I believe that the utility firms in this state have to be kept fiscally sound, and that there may be occasions for the granting of rate hikes. But I have made two points. Number 1: The Michigan Public Service Commission has failed to put utility companies to the test to prove the need and has failed to monitor their activities to try to guarantee that utility companies do not squander our money as rate payers."

"Secondly, when rates are increased the question is who should pay them. I pointed out that in this state the typical electrical and gas consumer in the home pays between 70 and 83 percent more per unit for gas and electricity than is paid for by the large industrial concern. My position has been that there should be no increases for the residential consumer until industry, large industry in this state, pays its fair share. If the big three pay their fair share for gas and electricity it would add 10 bucks to the cost of an automobile."

"I was pleased to note that in the two recent rate increases, the Public Service Commission has begun to correct this imbalance. They did it very quietly. I don't think they wanted to acknowledge my point."

QUESTION: Governor Milliken said repeal of the state sales tax on food and drugs would cost the state $200 million annually in lost revenues, and warns that the loss would trigger an increase in taxes from "other sources." In doing so, the governor is suggesting that Michigan voters reject the Nov. 5 ballot proposal to repeal the four percent sales tax on food and drugs. In recent statements, you have voiced support of the repeal proposal. Should the voters repeal Proposal C, and should you win the election... how and where would you find the monies to replace the $200 million loss the governor claims the state will have to recover?

ANSWER: "I've suggested a three part program."

First, that we take a hard look at the state budget and eliminate areas of waste. The recent federal report states that Michigan could save $40 million by eliminating waste in the welfare program. And that's a good beginning. I've suggested that we cut back the executive staff. I intend to do that as governor. When Swainson left office it was 25. It's up to 300 under Milliken. He recently shipped some of the people to another department but they still are on the state payroll."

"A second area is to seek the return of federal dollars to Michigan. No one can tell me that we can't do better. When the New York subway system was in trouble, the mayor and the governor went to Washington to fight for $200 million in subsidy for the subway. We do not have a governor who fights for our economic interest."

"Thirdly, I would postpone the scheduled reduction in the inventory tax... and probably the franchise tax."

WAHLS WAS TAPPED when Barry Brown, former director of the Department of Labor, dropped out of the attorney generals race at the last minute. Brown had quit his appointive job to make the race, then declined to make it after a controversy developed over his acceptance of federal consultant fees, while also getting a state payroll check. Wahls has stirred up his own party with philosophical antecedents which have been criticized as left of the GOP mainstream.

Panax Newspapers would like it better if Republicans could have developed a solid ticket for the statewide elections of 1974 to give the voters a clearer choice under the 2-party system.

We feel that Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley and Secretary of State Richard H. Austin should be re-elected.

As we see it

Kelley, Austin lead for respective seats

Democrats have given the voter the only choices for attorney general and secretary of state Nov. 5, two incumbents with long and distinguished careers of public service.

They are Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley, completing his 13th year in office and Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, near the end of his first 4-year term with a prior record of service in Detroit and Wayne County.

Kelley has been effective as the state's No. 1 law enforcement officer from the day of his original appointment, Dec. 28, 1961. His record speaks of land sales reforms, consumers protection, and has kept up the fight against influence peddling in government.

AUSTIN, A CERTIFIED public accountant, has served well the multiplicity of demands of his office. He has downplayed the political elements inherent in the office and has upgraded and extended its services to the public.

Republicans this time find themselves without real candidates of their choosing below the level of Gov. William G. Milliken and his lieutenant-governor running mate, Rep. James J. Damman of Troy.

The ballot will show former Sen. N. Lorraine Beebe of Dearborn running for secretary of state and Detroit lawyer Myron H. Wahls running for attorney general.

Mrs. Beebe, philosophically to the right of Milliken, was forced out as executive secretary of the Michigan

Consumers Council by Milliken people. She offered herself for the statewide ticket amid speculation Milliken would prefer someone else.

Panax backs Milliken in race for governor

Gov. William G. Milliken's record is sufficient on its face to return him to office for a second 4-year term Nov. 5. The times in state government are too turbulent for a change in 1974.

In his case, the positives of his six years in the state's highest office outweigh the negatives that any officeholder can accumulate over that period of time.

Milliken has left damagouery to others, treading carefully that almost invisible line between politics and public service. He has been and will be an effective governor.

ON OF HIS MAJOR contributions has been the recognition of the need for a comprehensive transportation system, replacing the biennial knee-jerk raising of gasoline taxes for highways alone. The $1.1 billion bond issue, which will generate $5 billion in federal funds and provide 10,000 new jobs each year from 1976 through 1990, will appear on the same ballot.

Milliken was forced to recommend raising the state income tax in 1971, but later he also fought for and won a massive reduction by increasing the individual income tax deduction from $1,200 to $1,500, reducing corporate franchise fees to make Michigan more attractive to industry and imposing a Circuit Breaker property tax cut.

In the field of labor, he went along with elimination of the waiting week for unemployment compensation, approved a 27 cents-an-hour raise for state employees, signed the agency shop bill for public employees and promoted an occupation safety and health act.

The major public issue separating Milliken from his Democratic opponent, Sander M. Levin, is financial. Milliken opposes the proposed repeal of the four percent sales tax on food and drugs, which will cost $80 million in the fiscal year and $200 million a year thereafter. Levin favors repeal and argues that the revenue loss can be accommodated without a tax increase.

EVEN DEMOCRATIC FISCAL experts anticipate a general fund deficit of up to $600 million next year, leaving an $800 million hole in revenues, if the repeal is approved. To say that this amount can be covered by reducing services - education, mental health, welfare - is just not realistic.

Levin argues that Milliken is not a leader and that next year the governor will have to work with a House and Senate controlled by Democrats.

And a major strength of Milliken's record has been his willingness and ability to work with both parties in the legislature, often with more cooperation from Democrats than from Republicans.

Milliken has done a good job as governor and Panax Newspapers supports his reelection.

SANDER M. LEVIN
Democratic candidate

That would amount to $35 million approximately. These are all estimates. The $200 million is an estimate, it may be $180 million.

"The inventory tax reduction in my opinion should be deferred for two reasons. First of all I think the first claim for a tax reduction now is with the consumer. Secondly, the inventory tax reduction last year was supposed to give $40 million in relief to business. It now turns out it is going to give $80 million."

"There is a third reason. I believe we should be using our tax structure to stimulate job creation in Michigan. I have been critical of the failure of state government, through tax incentives, to stimulate job creation."

QUESTION: What is your position on regional government and organizations such as SEMCOG? Many officials are opposed to regional government agencies because they feel they take important governmental decisions out of the hands of local officials and voters. Do you agree with that assessment?

'I believe the governor should set the tone...'

ANSWER: "I think some regional efforts do. Here is my position on regional government. I am in favor of local communities having the power to cooperate voluntarily. I am opposed to any kind of involuntary imposition of regional government."

"My basic principle is that the best government is the government that's close to home and which can do the job. Each local community can't have a mass transit system. There is going to have to be some kind of voluntary regional cooperation on transportation."

"The same is true of most drain and water problems."

(With reference to SEMCOG specifically, is it your judgement that SEMCOG is the form of regional government that has been mandatory on the part of the people?)

"It is not mandatory basically. It is supposed to be a voluntary association of communities and school districts."

QUESTION: On the subject of education. What do you propose to eliminate the annual threat of teacher strikes. A striking teacher does not face the loss of income. By nature of state law, a teacher (and the district) must provide 180 school days in the calendar year - thus fostering strikes. The law (Hutchinson Act) says there shall be no strikes, but the Legislature removed the penalty clause. As governor, how would you correct the annual September dilemma?

ANSWER: "It is a dilemma. I don't believe there are any easy answers to it. I believe, however, that we can do better. I suggest that we should amend the act to insert stronger fact-finding provisions."

"I think one of the problems is that in these disputes, the public voice often is not expressed and heard. A fact-finder, whose views are made public, can bring to bear the attitude of the public on the other two parties."

"Also, I am in favor of experimenting with a legislated schedule for teacher school board negotiations. And a third thing that may help in my opinion is a more activist governor. I don't suggest that in every dispute the governor should come in or send in his representatives, but there are times when the governor should use the weight of his office. That was true last year in the Detroit teacher strike. It was clear that somebody had to come in and get things off dead center. The governor's office finally hoped to do that; but as I remember, it was two months after it began and should have happened much sooner."

"I am not in favor of removing the 180-day provision because I think it's a good education policy to have it." (Do teachers have the right to strike?)

"I am not in favor of giving them that power. I believe that with some improvements, the present law can be made more workable. Changes could make it worse and not better. I am in favor of trying a legislative timetable."

QUESTION: Would you explain your proposal to provide a state guaranteed college loan to Michigan students seeking higher education - which we understand would be available to a student regardless of family income?

ANSWER: "I have proposed that the state guarantee a loan to any student to cover the full cost of education."

"Right now, under the federal program, families of $15,000 and over are ineligible. There is a limit in effect of $1,500 and that cuts out literally thousands of families. We are talking about many families who have two children of college age. Two children at $3,000 comes, as I add it up, to $6,000 and who today can afford that. I am a bit frightened because we have three children who presumably could be in college at the same time. I don't see how we could possibly manage that."

State ed board posts are 'extras' for parties

Michigan's major and minor political parties have nominated 31 candidates for eight seats on the State Board of Education and the three university policy-making bodies.

These nominations are the extras that the parties enjoy at the expense of the young and the taxpayers.

Too often they have been the organization's reward for political hackdom, a deep bow to a special interest group or a casual payoff of a campaign contributor.

The reality is that if the top of the statewide ticket does well, those at the bottom (the education boards) do well.

Nobody splits a ticket to vote for an educational candidate.

And the qualifications are that the nominee has his own resources, since most of the money goes to the top candidate; that he has attended school somewhere and will have some appeal to the voters, since while it is unlikely to help the entire ticket, he could hurt it.

This year the major parties made an effort to achieve a quota, one man and one woman for two seats on each board. At Grand Rapids, the Democrats let it be known that only the male nominations would be contested, that the second spot (or first) would go automatically to a woman. By raising the man-woman issue, the discrimination both parties claim to deplore was encouraged.

Six years ago Gov. William G. Milliken proposed as part of the educational package that the state board be changed from elective to appointive, that the seats on the board be filled on the basis of merit with the governor taking whatever the political consequences.

And four years ago, Panax Newspapers declined to endorse any of the party candidates. The placing of wise, thoughtful and qualified people on any of the boards is left too much to chance.

We decline again this year.

Student trip guidelines keep committee busy

The establishment of guidelines governing student camp requests and related activities has been requested by the Van Buren Board of Education.

The board has appointed a committee to draw up guidelines for consideration. The committee will be composed of School Board Member Doris J. Roe, current chairman of the elementary committee of the board; Samuel LoPresto, principal of the Edgemont Elementary School; and two principals and two teachers to be named later.

THE BOARD'S ACTION came after hearing a request by Dave Larabell, a Sumpter Elementary School teacher. Larabell requested permission to take the sixth grade and upper special education students at the school to camp for the week of May 12-16.

The school board tabled formal action on Larabell's request, stating that rather than handling camp requests as they are presented to the school board, the establishment of guidelines could control the issuance of camp requests.

In other action the school board approved a request of the high school administration to hold a conference in Battle Creek on Oct. 19-21.

Fifty students - 25 seniors and 25 juniors - along with two high school principals and staffers will attend the Michigan Education Conference.

The school board also tabled action on the 1974-75 athletic budget and girls' gymnastics program until this week when Athletic Director Harry Hidenfelter will be present.

Farm service mails ballots

Nominating petitions for the upcoming election of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) community committees, now being mailed to local county ASCS offices, are expected to be in for ballot listing by next Tuesday, ASCS officials in Lansing stated.

The local ASCS offices for Belleville, Van Buren Township, Huron Township and Romulus area farmers is located at The Wayne Post Office, 3716 S. Wayne Rd., Wayne.

Upon receipt of the nominating petitions, ASCS officials will prepare ballots listing at least six candidates for a Nov. 22 mailing to area farmers.

The ASCS election for community committees is scheduled Dec. 2.

ASCS elections are unique in that only farmers may vote and serve on the committees and all elections are conducted by mail. Farmers already are nominating their candidate selections.

Engaged couple feted at dinner

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

Being newly engaged is always rather exciting and particularly when one's friends take a special interest in the "big moment." Such was the case for Sheila Metcalf and her fiancé, Martin Soehren, when they were honored at a surprise dinner party in Chicago recently.

Sheila's mother's best friend and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Janus, were anxious to meet the prospective bridegroom so invited everyone to their place for the weekend.

In honor of the couple's recent announcement the Januses planned a special champagne dinner-party with a round of toasts being made for future happiness.

Taking part in the festive occasion were the Albert Metcalfs and their daughter, Denise, of Harris Road, and the hosts' two sons, Frank Jr. and Donald.

Sheila is sandwiching plans for her May 24 wedding in after duties in the adult psychiatry division of Ypsilanti State Hospital and her future husband is back at his assistant manager's job at Howard Johnson's of Belleville.

Parents visit from Kentucky

The Holmans — Barb and Paul of Harmony Lane — have had the pleasure of a week-long visit from her parents, the Charles Rueves, who came from Louisville, Ky. to see the Holmans and their three children, Robin, Scott and Kelly.

The Rueves chose the autumn season for their jaunt especially to visit cider mills in this area and to revel in what nature does to Michigan foliage in October. The distaff side also enjoyed a few shopping trips while Grandpa Rueve and his grandson got in a little fishing.

Highlighting the Kentuckians stay was a dual birthday party marking the back-to-back natal dates (Oct. 14 and 15) of Mrs. Rueve and Kelly.

Foreign guests entertained

Dorothy Kellas played hostess at a luncheon in her Margery Street home recently. Guests were Florence Satterlee and son, Bryant, of Westland; Annie Kidwell and son, Jason, of Belleville; Mildred Mackey of Detroit; Betty Wilcox of Westland and her sister and brother-in-law, Yvonne and Pat Bowden and children, Philip and Michele.

Yvonne and her family arrived in the country recently for the first meeting with her sister and family in eight years (when the Alex Wilcox's left Scotland.) Since then Yvonne married, had a son and she and her husband decided to leave Scotland and travel to Australia two years ago. While there they bought a camper and spent five months touring the continent. And just last Aug. 10 their daughter, Michelle, was born there.

They like the country so well that they are now back in Glasgow, Scotland to sell their home and return to "down under" country.

Being their first visit to the United States, the Bowdens were entertained and shown as much of the area as possible. With the Alex Wilcox family they motored to New Jersey, stayed with Alex's sister and toured throughout the state and New York.

Then it was on to Toronto to visit Alex's foster sister and to see a bit of Eastern Canada. The foreign guests were most impressed with Niagara Falls and New York City.

The Bowdens left Metro Airport after their whirlwind visit and flew to London where they were met by Pat's brother before continuing on to Glasgow. On returning to Australia the family plans to make its home in Sydney.

Perry-Lewallen vows repeated at St. Paul's

The newly wed Jerome Dale Perry honeymooned in Northern Michigan for three days prior to taking up temporary residence at 38453 Judd Rd., New Boston.

The new Mrs. Perry was Nora Ann Lewallen prior to her marriage Sept. 28 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church of New Boston. The Rev. Daniel Richert presided at the single ring ceremony before some 80 assembled relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Client Lewallen of 29970 Huron River Dr., Flat Rock, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Carolyn Markwell of 38453 Judd Rd., New Boston, and Joe Dale Perry of San Francisco, Calif.

FOR THE single ring nuptials the bride chose to wear a white satin gown designed with a scalloped neckline, seed-pearled bodice and fingertip sleeves. A front panel of lace added interest to the toe-touching creation.

Her shoulder-length veil composed of five tiers of silk illusion fell from an embroidered floral tiara. Completing her ensemble was a bouquet of autumn flowers, roses and baby's breath.

Multiple Sclerosis drive begins

The National Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Society, Michigan Chapter, Inc., a service of the United Way of Michigan, has begun its annual campaign to acquaint area residents with details of multiple sclerosis.

Henry Majors of Sumpter Township, chairman of the Education Campaign for the southeastern branch chapter, said the branch is prepared to distribute literature, give lectures, show films and present informational programs to any interested group in an effort to make more people aware of the MS story.

Despite continuing efforts at the national, state and local levels, multiple sclerosis remains a relatively unknown disease to the general public," Majors said. "Faced with the uncertainty of the disease and its impact on patients and their families, this is an unfortunate situation which must be corrected. Education Month will aid greatly in our efforts to inform the public about MS."

MS IS A debilitating neurological disease that affects hundreds of thousands of young adults in the United States and millions around the world. Michigan has the second greatest incidence of MS with an estimated 11,500 patients.

The newest piece of educational equipment used by the society is a film produced by the Michigan Chapter for use by its branches entitled, "MS-Toward a Better Understanding."

The film was produced for several reasons, Majors explained. MS is often confused with other diseases, and there exists a great deal of misunderstanding about it. MS is not, as many people believe, an automatic sentence of death or life confined to a wheelchair, Majors said.

The new educational aid is arranged in three parts: a self-scoring quiz, the film itself and the question and answer period. Majors, who will coordinate the public education program for the local branch, said: "The quiz is designed to serve as a discussion starter-this is its most important purpose."

IT IS THE intent of this program to provide individuals an educational experience and promote spirited discussions about MS, Majors added.

"As of today we know of no cause, no prevention, no really effective treatment for MS," he continued. "We don't even have a specific diagnostic test for it. Nevertheless the more people we can involve in the fight against it, the sooner we can defeat it."

Multiple sclerosis, is a chronic, neurological disease of the central nervous system, the brain and spinal cord. It is not a mental disease, it is not hereditary, nor is it, a muscular disease.

MS affects primarily young adults, with initial symptoms occurring between the ages of 20 and 40. The brain and spinal cord control such important functions as walking, talking, seeing, hearing, tying a shoe lace, opening a door. These functions are controlled by impulses from the brain.

Majors said that anyone wishing further information about multiple sclerosis or the society should write the

of the Young is offering stage entertainment for youth. The theatre has been acclaimed as one of the nation's leading dramatic companies. And this season, the performers hope to "reach out" to more than 15,000 children in southeastern Michigan with an expanded program. Theatre of the Young's touring companies will perform three plays this season in a program called Project DO (Dramatic Outreach). VIRGINIA KOSTE, professor of speech and dramatic arts and director of theatre recently said she hopes the touring productions will perform for twice as many school children this year as last. "We're taking a terrific leap in the scale of our operation," she said. "We want to give the theatre experience to as many children of as many ages as possible." The touring companies include the Caravan Players, whose performances are geared toward children of later elementary grades through high school. This season two Caravan companies will perform "My Brother's Keeper" and "How to Succeed in Medicine Without Really Trying." Another company is the Little Theatre of the Young, which directs itself to the youngest audiences, usually kindergarten through fourth grade. "OUR THEATRE GROUPS serve children who would otherwise be completely deprived of these experiences," Mrs. Koste says. "We couldn't serve everybody by bringing them to us, so we go out to them." She notes that this "people theatre" experience is not only beneficial to the young audiences, but is excellent experience for the student performers. In addition to presenting plays, Project DO also sends storytellers, improvisational drama leaders and actor-teachers to schools, libraries, hospitals and community centers. For further information, call the Theatre of the Young business manager at 483-4230 between 8 and 10:30 a.m.

Unorthodox art show combines triple talent

The origin of the name is meaningless when considering the letters are derived from the cities of Copenhagen, Brussels and Amsterdam, but the unorthodox result of the COBRA movement in painting is part of an exhibition now at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Now through Nov. 17, the institute will be hosting "Cobra and Contrasts," the first time COBRA has been the focus of a major museum exhibition in the United States. Some 140 items in all media — paintings, sculpture, graphics, multiples, ceramics — will show the short-lived movement which became international when artists in Spain, Italy, France, England and Germany joined its revolt. The entire content of "Cobra and Contrasts" has been selected from one of America's best private collections of 20th century art, The Winston Collection, formed by Lydia Winston Malbin of Birmingham, Mich. and her late husband, Harry Lewis Winston. PAINT SPREAD FURIOUSLY across canvas and molten sculpture were two hallmarks of the COBRA movement unleashed by a revolutionary group of European artists in a 3-year period from 1948 to 1951.

Rebelling against formalism, they wanted to shock, to stimulate and mainly to upset the School of Paris dominance in art. Personal associations that emerged from Mrs. Malbin's adventure in collecting, which began in the 1930s, will be evident in one of three satellite displays, "Documenting a Collection." Giving an insight into the way a great collection is built, it will include books, magazine articles, exhibition catalogues, posters, letters and memorabilia from Mrs. Malbin's extensive library.

Philatelic showing in Detroit

With rumors circulating that the cost of a postage stamp is hitting the 13-cent level by next year, Western Wayne County residents can recapture some of "cheapness" of the 3-cent stamp era at a display Detroit Historical Museum. Entitled "Pony Express to 48202: The Story of Detroit," the exhibit includes a number of first day issues and special commemorative stamps of the years gone by. The exhibit, which will run through Nov. 13, is being presented in cooperation with the U.S. Postal Service in Detroit.

- Dispose of, by sale to private enterprise, the Wayne County General Hospital which loses over 50 million tax dollars per year to operate — at best a half-used facility.
- To investigate regional governments, their need and accomplishments with the possibility of withdrawing Wayne County from SEMCOG, SEMTA and re-establishing Wayne County autonomy.
- To examine the entire health and welfare structure of Wayne County—its relationship to state welfare abuses, with a goal of cutting back this most single greatest expenditure of all county funds.
- Get the County out of the airport business by turning the administration over to private enterprise and thus establishing a tax asset instead of a liability.
- Document the amount of real property exempted from taxes by tax exempt Foundations in order to re-assess such properties, thus lessening the tax burden on the private owner.
- Investigate judicial leniency in relation to rampant growth of crime and make recommendations to the proper government agency.
- Cut down or eliminate all programs which are not essential and to combine or amalgamate or disband all services which tend to be duplicated in other departments thus streamlining and cutting down the tax burden in accordance with the maxim — less taxes through less government.

Belleville Girl Scouts to dispose of old flag

An "Etiquette of the Flag" ceremony regarding the disposition of an American flag will be conducted by Belleville's Girl Scout Troop 446 on Nov. 12.

The ceremony, to be held behind South Junior High School, 45201 Owen St., Belleville at 4 p.m., will consist of the burning of a worn-out flag in accordance with the rules and regulations of the military on the disposal of an American flag by burning.

In addition to members of the Girl Scout troop and invited Boy Scouts, representatives of John M. Wahl Post of The Women's Relief Corps (WRC) will be in attendance, according to Troop Leader Lilly Richards.

Mrs. Richards said the rules of flag etiquette, which govern the ceremony, requires that an old and worn-out flag first be cut into two parts separating the stars from the stripes then burned. The ashes are then buried.

The program leading up to the burning ritual will include the presentation of the troop's honor colors, using a borrowed flag, playing of taps and recitation by the Girl Scouts of the scout promise. Representatives of the WRC will then present a new flag to the troop, Mrs. Richards said.

Calendar scheme dupes merchants

Businessmen in the Huron School District and surrounding areas should beware of an advertising salesman from an out-of-town calendar firm, warns Huron School District Assistant Supt. Lee Goodney.

A salesman saying he represents a California firm that manufactures calendars has taken off with more than $200 from area businesses and hasn't delivered the goods, Goodney said.

Although the school district has had nothing to do with the problem, Goodney said he feels this type of apparent fraud will make it difficult for the schools to obtain advertising for district programs and publications.

Checks from the businesses have been cashed in Oakland, Calif., by a man named "M. Tourigen," Goodney explained.

Although police are looking into the matter, Goodney said it would be best for businessmen to be very careful about where they buy advertising.

Officials seek parking study

The Wayne County Road Commission (WCRC) has been requested by Van Buren

Township officials to make a study of reported parking problems in the Van Buren Estates Subdivision.

The township officials' request was by formal resolution unanimously adopted at a recent meeting of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

Two drivers employed by the Michigan School Bus Co. which provides bus service for the Van Buren Public School District had appeared before the township board, complaining about "squeezing through tight spaces" in the subdivision, the township's largest residential development. The subdivision currently has 722 single-family dwellings.

Cheryl Albert of 9698 Hamilton St., and Mary Ziolkowski of 9578 Hamilton St. told the trustees they are tired of having to squeeze their school busses through streets with parking on both sides in the subdivision.

"Busses have problems getting through," Mrs. Albert said. "Sometimes you either have to back up or go around to get the school children."

Van Buren Township Treasurer Ralph Hedman, who resides in the subdivision, agreed there was a problem. He said with two normal-sized cars parked at the curb on either side of the road, there is 13 feet of clearance through the center.

Hedman added that township firemen answering a fire early last year had to park in the middle of the street and barely had enough room to get out of the cab.

For other minor blazes fire trucks had to back up and take another route, he said.

Van Buren Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer pointed out that a study was made of the subdivision about two years ago.

Residents were asked if they wanted parking only on one side of the street. Opinion was divided and the project was dropped.

An expert in the field will visit the subdivision in a survey to see if the 1-side parking is feasible. He will make his recommendation to the Wayne County Road Commission which will decide what to do.

In the election of a Judge there are no political platforms or issues.

The District Court has replaced the former Justice of the Peace courts. The duties of the two courts are basically the same.

The committee believes Mr. Hogan's 6 years of experience as a Justice of the Peace, and his 23 years of successful law practice makes him especially qualified to fill the new Judgeship in our 34th
District Court.

At St. Joseph Church

Gospel singers perform

London Parris and The Apostles will return to St. Joseph Catholic Church, 9425 Whittaker Rd., Whittaker, for a 2-day concert at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 4-5.

The Rev. Darius W. Wyszynski, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, met Parris and The Apostles two years ago at a concert in the Lincoln Community Methodist Church.

London mentioned that he had never sung in a Catholic church and The Rev. Wyszynski welcomed them to sing at St. Joseph's.

Parris and The Apostles brought the first gospel music when they sang for a special Ash Wednesday Mass on March 7 last year.

The response from Catholics and the rest of the community "was very enthusiastic." So again St. Joseph's will sponsor a 2-day concert by the group. The Apostles this summer invited Fr. Wyszynski to travel with them and he accepted their invitation by traveling with the group for a 4-day revival in Hurst Assembly of God, Hurst, Texas.

The Van Buren Public School District is conducting a survey of 1974 secondary vocational education graduates.

The survey forms were mailed out to the graduates last Thursday with a request that the survey forms be filled out and returned to school officials by Nov. 1.

At NBD, you get a lot more than 7 1/4% interest.

Let's be honest... just about every bank in Detroit will give you 7 1/4% interest on savings certificates of $1000 or more left on deposit for 4 years. And so will National Bank of Detroit.

But NBD can give you something extra no other bank in Michigan can give you — the security of dealing with Michigan's biggest bank, with assets of more than $8,000,000,000.

And you don't have to have a thousand dollars, or leave your money on deposit for 4 years, to have your savings protected by NBD. The same $8 billion in assets, and long-time reputation for financial soundness, stand behind every NBD savings plan... even if you open a regular EveryDay Interest account with only a few dollars.

Why not get the safety and security of Michigan's biggest bank, by starting a savings program at the NBD office near you?

We have what it takes to make banking a lot better for you.

Making banking better for you.

Federal law and regulation prohibit the payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of the interest thereon is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the passbook rate.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

HAROLD REDISKE, HAROLD REDISKE, JR. — DIRECTORS

We doubt if any other nation on earth can equal our country's appreciation of and concern for both our present and former service men and women. On Veteran's Day it would seem proper to consider some interesting facts.

Our country's concern and appreciation is clearly shown in provisions for disability compensation... Hospitalization in both VA and non-VA hospitals, including psychiatric or neurological ailments... Home loans, including mobile home loans are at an all time high... Educational and vocational facilities are more available with all time high enrollments. These are just a few examples and nearly everyone agrees this is as it should be. Very few people oppose every possible assistance for the millions of men and women who performed their highest obligation of citizenship. As we honor these millions of men and women on Veteran's Day, it would seem fitting for all of us to be thankful too for the dedicated, helpful people employed in our VA facilities everywhere...

About home decor

Englishmen had warm ideas

Energy-conscious residents of Western Wayne County may take comfort in on furniture company executive's statement that we could borrow some tips from early Americans and the early English who didn't know about central heating.

They let their furniture keep them warm, he said.

In addition to reviving longdormant functions of certain pieces of furniture, Gus Tron, a vice-president of Drexel-Heritage, suggests scouting the attic for old downy quilts or braziers (heat-fired pans with grilles) and the like that might still be utilized to do what they were intended to do.

"People with canopy beds might consider curtaining them for draft-free sleeping, drawing the draperies at night. Furniture might also be more cozily arranged for fireplace huddling," he said.

Although Tron came to the United States 25 years ago as a scholarship exchange student from Italy to Bluffton College in Ohio, he decided to stay when he fell in love with the furniture business. It provided him with the opportunity to use his talents in the design arts.

"Many households in Europe used furnishings as a foil to the cold and chill. Heavy draperies were hung in doorways and, of course, in medieval times large tapestries were used on walls," he explained.

In the United States at the turn of the century heavy velvet or damask portieres were in doorways and used as a decorative asset with different colors on either side complementing the rooms they separated. As for wall hangings, wall runs are now popular and could be utilized for their insulation qualities, he concluded.

Cycling route gets approval

The construction of a bicycle path along I-94 recommended by the Van Buren Township Planning Commission has received the approval of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

A motion asking the Michigan State Department of Highways and Transportation to build the bicycle path unanimously was approved by the trustees at a recent session.

Township reasoned that now is the time for the bike path to be constructed since the highway department currently is in the process of re-locating I-94's north boundary in Van Buren Township about 300 feet further north.

The proposed bike path would begin at the south service drive of the expressway from I-275 now under construction to the Ypsilanti-Ann Arbor Bicycle path network.

"The Yellow Pages is the best prescription for curing profit problems!"

"We've used the Yellow Pages since we opened our pharmacy in East Detroit, and we keep using it. We like to keep our name before a constantly changing public," claims Joseph A. Sokal, Hennessy Pharmacy, 20803 Brock, East Detroit. "One year we used a coded telephone number in our ad and received approximately 100 calls per week on that line alone. Almost our entire advertising budget goes for the Yellow Pages."

"The Yellow Pages is a great friend to have—especially when a businessman is just getting started," says Michael Richardson, Dependable Battery Co., 13550 Dix Toledo Road, Southgate. "Two years ago we opened our battery shop and placed an ad in the Yellow Pages hoping to draw retail business to supplement our wholesale accounts. You can imagine our surprise when we got a large wholesale account that had located us through the Yellow Pages! Wholesale or retail, our Yellow Pages ad more than pays for itself."

"When I bought Warren Rustproofing, one of the first things I did was increase the Yellow Pages advertising. We are now in five different directories. We don't advertise in any other medium because we don't need to. Approximately 75% of our new business comes from the Yellow Pages. Our faith in the Yellow Pages has been rewarded. Although this year and the one before were supposed to be slow in retail sales, we've done fine."

Jim Malget, Warren Rustproofing, 25600 Van Dyke, Center Line.

"A little less than two years ago, I decided to open my own driver training school," explains Peggy Ostro, ABC Driving School, 542 West 8 Mile Road, Ferndale. "As quickly as I could, I took out a large ad in the Yellow Pages. Why? Because it's the best source of business I know. At least 90% of my business, and perhaps more during my first year, could be traced directly to my Yellow Pages ad. The Yellow Pages is the most efficient advertising medium I know."

In Belleville area

Telephone rate may change

Important changes in the Belleville area telephone service are expected around the first part of 1975, a service representative of the Michigan Bell says.

About Jan. 20, company officials expect the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC) to change the Belleville exchange from rate group C to rate group D. This is in accordance with an MPSC order of last October.

When the Belleville exchange is changed to rate group D, flat rate business service will be discontinued and replaced by measured service. Flat rate business service is not offered in rate group D exchanges, according to Becky Ryan, service representative.

THE MPSC order of last October provides that when the number of telephones in the local calling area of an exchange moves above or below the limitations of its rate group for 24 consecutive months, the exchange will be reclassified to the proper rate group, Ms Ryan stated.

An explanation of the measured service in comparison with current flat rate service was detailed by the company spokesman.

The current flat rate service at the Belleville exchange costs $11.95 each month per line. This gives a user unlimited local calling in an area shown on page five of the telephone directory.

Measured service costs $5.75 each month per line. In addition, each call in the local calling area costs five cents. THE BASIC monthly rate for measured service is $6.20 less than the current service. Measured service will mean lower local service charges for some customers and an increase for others, Ms Ryan explained.

For example, if you make 124 local calls per line each month, you'll pay about the same as you do now. If you make fewer than 124 local calls each month per line, you'll pay less than you do now. And, if you make more than 124 calls monthly per line, you'll pay more.

It simply means that if a customer who makes fewer calls pays less, while a customer who makes more calls pays more.

This follows the MPSC order that charges for telephone service be related more closely to the amount of service actually used, Ms Ryan added.

Damages home

Fuse box leads to blaze

A recent fire that heavily damaged a Sumpter Township home located at 48120 Harris Rd. was caused when a fuse box shorted out, Sumpter Township Fire Chief Joseph Mitchell said. The Sumpter Township Fire Department last Thursday received the call for the home of James Synder, a construction worker who was not home when the fire began.

A breezeway and attached 3-car garage were saved by firemen who later were assisted by the Van Buren Township Fire Department.

Firemen were somewhat hampered in initially fighting the blaze since the nearest fire hydrant was about three-quarters of a mile away.

The home was an older model one-story residence which had had several additions installed.

No one was hurt at the fire. Synder spent the night at a brother's home. Wimana Daymon, a next door neighbor, was the first to get through to the fire department. She said that she was washing windows when she noted the smoke.

Tigers show 'Jekyll & Hyde' image

Belleville heads for Plymouth

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor
Now Belleville can settle down and play the infamous role of spoilers.

That's about all that's left for Coach Keith Emerson's Tigers who were shut out by Edsel Ford 20-0 before a Homecoming crowd Friday night.

And what better time to be a spoiler than Friday night when Belleville travels to Plymouth which happens to be the undefeated leader of the Suburban 8 Conference.

Emerson feels his football team has a chance to make it a season by whipping the Rocks.

"IT MAY sound like a broken record," said Emerson whose team will sport a 2-4 record against the Rocks' perfect 6-0. "But, Plymouth is not an overpowering football team. They are however a team that executes well and doesn't give up when someone scores a touchdown on them."

That latter remark by the Belleville coach was lowered at his minions who apparently can't fight an uphill battle.

Enterprise Roman Sports

-A PANAX PUBLICATION-
Wednesday, October 23, 1974 Page B-1

"If someone scores upon us first," said Emerson, "we're dead." Belleville had that Jekyll and Hyde look against Edsel as they managed to hold the T-Birds scoreless for two quarters. Edsel broke the deadlock in the third quarter when Kurt Flowers scored his first of two touchdowns of the evening, a four-yard sprint which capped a 73-drive.

THE TIGERS must have seen the printing on the wall when, after Edsel failed to score the extra point, the visitors got a second chance because of a holding penalty. They rammed the ball over for two-points instead of one on the second try.

Dan O'Dell tallied from one yard out later in the quarter, culminating a 69-yard drive.

Then, Flowers polished off the Tigers with a six-yard scoring jaunt in the fourth quarter.

Belleville's furthest penetration in the second half was to the T-Bird's 40-yard line. The Tigers had the ball for 12 plays in that half and couldn't get it back from the "ball hog" visitors.

In one stretch, Edsel had Belleville's secondary so rattled that it completed seven-not-one, or two or three-but seven passes in a row (Continued on Page B-2)

DESTINATION UNKNOWN — Belleville senior quarterback Mark Verrot (dark jersey) had his troubles Friday night as his offensive line failed to give him ample passing support. Verrot and the Tigers succumbed to Edsel Ford 20-0 as their record dipped to 2-4 on the season. It could be even worse Friday night when Coach Keith Emerson's boys travel to Plymouth to take on the undisputed, undefeated leader of the Suburban 8 Conference.

Sports Meridian
98-pounds and running real fast

By TOM MOORADIAN

He was standing in the rain - all 98 pounds of him. His 5-foot-3 frame, most of it legs, had just covered three miles. And those legs crossed the finish line first.

Kevin Kitz was "the unofficial winner" of the junior varsity phase of the competition for the ninth annual Western Wayne Invitational.

He wasn't awarded the first place ribbon because ninth graders are ineligible to compete in the meet. It is opened only to high school runners.

"You want to share my umbrella?" I asked the rain-drenched winner.

"Sure, thanks Mr. Mooradian."

"Then, you know who I am."

"Sure, you didn't let me run in the All-Area Cross Country Meet last year."

There was an inward smile that was forced to surface. "But, we don't let junior high athletes participate in any of our All-Area Meets," I explained.

"That's what my mother told me you told her."

WE PAUSED AND WATCHED the rains quicken their pace. Then I asked why he didn't get on the school bus with the others.

"I'm looking for my sweat pants," the youth explained. "I think someone has ripped them off. I mean I think someone stole them," he said in an effort to bridge the generation gap.

I nodded. "You have to be careful at big meets, son. I remember last spring they took some vaulting poles from West and John Glenn."

He shook his head.

Kevin had covered the Wayne Memorial course in 15:55. And, if he had been eligible to run varsity, his performance would have ranked him among the top 10 at the tournament.

THE WINNING VARSITY time was turned in by Belleville's Randy Block. He was clocked in 15:17, a course and meet record. So Kevin doesn't have far to go.

"If the kid stays healthy, he has more potential as evidenced by his present times to develop into the greatest distance runner this city has ever turned out," said Ron Clifton, Garden City East High cross country coach.

That's saying a lot.

Garden City has produced such runners as West's Lonnie Andersen, an all-stater who went on to earn All-American fame in college and John Yurchic, also an All-Area and All-Stater while at East High.

"Kevin is all heart, a real blue chipper, and if he were attending East he could easily make varsity," Clifton pointed out.

KEVIN STARTED taking interest in the sport by trailing his big brothers, Art who is presently co-captain of the East High team. The younger Kitz also went through the grueling training practices at East with Art and liked it so much that he stuck with it.

A miler at Cambridge Junior High School, Kevin finds the "distance events very challenging."

"Heck, I would have done better today," Kevin said, "but I really didn't have anyone pushing me out there. I know I could do much better."

And you're sure he will.

BUILDING FOR FUTURE — Putting the manpower together for a future Romulus High cross country team, Coach Al Wilkerson (kneeling, at right) discusses strategy with his young club which is made up of freshmen and sophomores. "These runners don't have experience but I feel that they will be the cornerstones of a winning team here at Romulus," said Wilkerson, a second year cross country coach.

3 Belleville swimmers to receive AAU honors

A trio of Belleville swimmers will be honored at the Michigan Aquatics Awards Banquet for their outstanding performance during the recently-concluded AAU season. The banquet will be held in Garden City. The three, Sharon Ackron, Russ Bearance and Joe Thomas, competed against other AAU squads as members of the Tiger Swim Club. Individually, Bearance and Thomas swam in the 11-12 year old age group while Miss Ackron competed in the open division. To qualify for these awards, each swimmer registered a faster time than the state limit for his or her event and age.

ACKRON qualified in the 100 and 200-yard breast-stroke. Thomas bettered the state times in the 50-100 and 200-yard freestyle. Bearance qualified in the 200 free, 200 individual medley and 100 fly, among others.

The AAU State Meet at which these swimmers qualified was held over a three day period last July in Southfield with 75 teams participating. Those honored are the so-called "cream of the crop" in state AAU competition.

Huron suffers 'worst defeat'

It wasn't easy for Coach Jim Rossow to digest, but it was there, a 62-0 football setback at the hands of front-running, Tecumseh.

It was Rossow's worst defeat as a head coach.

"You're just numb afterwards," said the Chiefs' mentor, "what can you say? The only consolation there is that it could have been worse."

"In fact, there was nothing we could have done about it."

TECUMSEH, sharing the top of the Huron League standing with Flat Rock, leaped to a 20-0 first quarter lead, Friday then scored 28 points in the next 12 minutes before adding single touchdowns in each of the final two quarters.

"We helped out by fumbling quite a lot," added the Huron coach, "and the bounces went to them, but they're an awfully good football team."

Chet Panza, the Huron's rugged fullback, and quarterback Craig Beattie, provided much of the spark in what proved to be a disastrous day for the Chiefs.

Huron probably will have its last realistic chance to win a league game this Friday when it hosts Monroe Jefferson, also winless in six starts and co-occupant of the league cellar.

The Chiefs' final league game, a week from Friday is against fourth place Grosse Ile.

"It just one of the games when the team that wants to leave the cellar the most will win it," said Rossow. "We're about evenly matched, so it will be up to the boys to go after this one."

Huron has that slight edge of playing before the home folks.

South blanks Romulus

Bob Cook's 62-yard touchdown and quarterback Larry Pingston's two-yard TD run staked Belleville South to a 14-0 halftime edge over Romulus in a 32-0 triumph last week.

Terry Turrentine scored on a 53-yard jaunt and a 15-yard TD pass from Pingston to Marty Thompkins accounted for the third and fourth South TD's.

Pingston also scored on an eight-yard quarterback sneak.

Turrentine could have made matters worse as two of his TD's were called back because of penalties. Pat Anguilm and Rick Briggs turned in excellent agames on defense.

Cougars sweep Tigers

The Belleville Cougars swept three games from Garden City Tigers in the Western Suburban Junior Football League last week. John Smolen scored all three touchdowns in the Cougars' 20-0 victory over the Garden City freshmen unit while David Bramble accounted for two of the three conversions.

QUARTERBACK Mel Richendollar guided his team to their fifth victory in seven starts. The Tigers are now 5-1-1 on the season.

In the junior varsity game, John Verrot scored Belleville's initial TD in the first quarter and also the extra point to stake the Tigers to a 7-0 lead but Garden City came back to within one point of tying it with a second quarter touchdown.

Chris O'Keefe's touchdown in the fourth quarter iced the game for the Tigers.

The Cougar varsity unit also blanked their peers, 19-0 as Brian Brinkerhoff, Carl Winekoff and Paul Arnett each scored touchdowns for the winners. Arnett also accounted for the extra point.

South whips Vogel

Terry Turrentine scored two touchdowns as Belleville South defeated Garden City Vogel in a junior high football game.

Turrentine's TDs came on a 55-yard and 30 yards and also accounted for two of the conversions.

Tony Harris opened the scoring when he eluded Vogel's defense and raced 65 yards into the end zone. Marty Thompkins sagged the extra point.

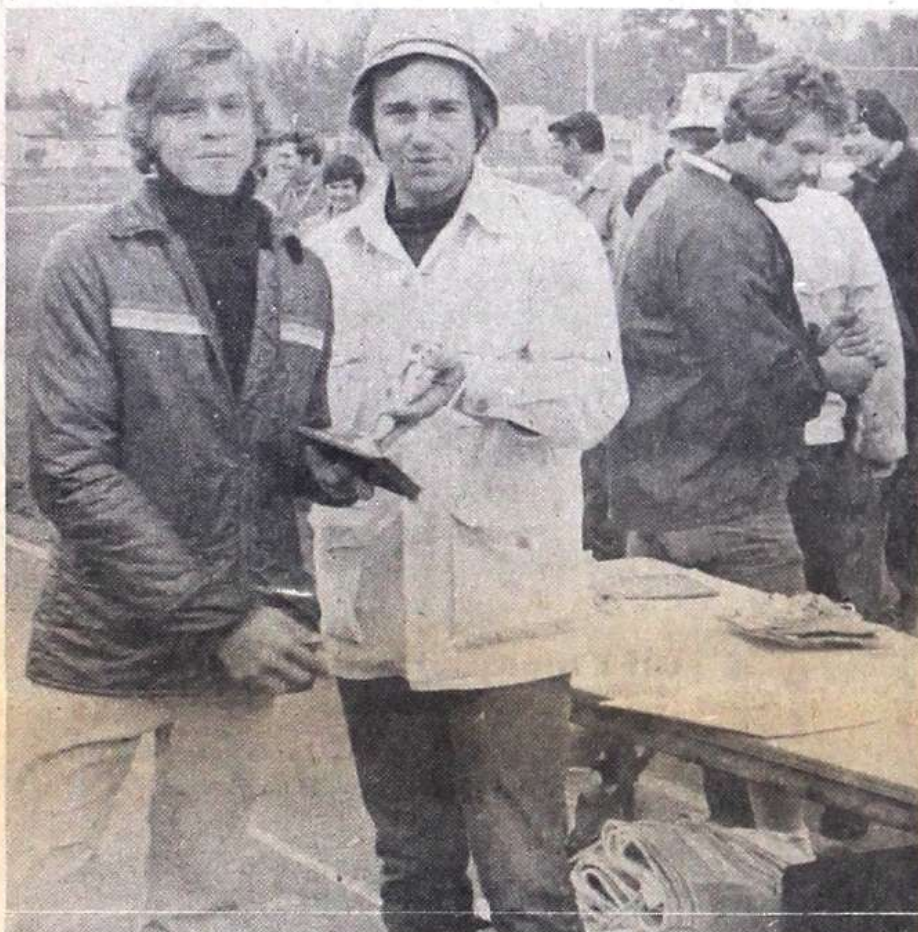

Pingston also scored the fourth TD as he crossed the goal line on a quarterback sneak.

Guards Tom Rizzo, Terry Caves and Center Keith Bryson opened up the holes for the South ball carriers while middle linebacker Bob Cook, and tackle Wes Parson were the key to the South defense.

Flyers win one at Ypsi

The Romulus Flyers sandwiched a 13-6 junior varsity victory between two losses to the Ypsilanti Braves in a Western Suburban League football contest last week.

Tigers outrun Dearborn

FINALIST — Thirteen-year-old Edwin Pichan (at left) came up with the winning combination of kicking, passing and punting a football, to earn a shot at the regional title. Edwin is a student at Huron Junior High School and if he can pass the regional test, he will shoot for state and sectional honors. The annual PP & K contest is sponsored by the Ford Motor Company.

Regional set for Saturday

It's been a long time since Belleville has beaten a Dearborn High cross country team, but Coach Bruce Romant's Tigers did it last week, 28-31.

"I was very pleased with the victory because it was an added incentive going into the league meet," said Romant, who has won miracles with the teams since taking over last September.

Randy Block, who won the Western Wayne Invitational, finished second to Dearborn's Rick Allison to provide the Tigers one of the key positions. Block's time was a 16:15, while Allison was clocked in 16:03.

The key to the victory, however, was "breaking up the 1-2-3 Dearborn combination," according to Romant.

"I FEEL there were two elements that provided us with this victory," said the Belleville coach. "First, we had six runners finish in a row before Dearborn's fourth man and, also, Block managed to break up Dearborn's monopoly on 1-2-3.

The six-in-row finishes by Tiger runners were supplied by Don Buhro (16:45), John Szlinis (16:51), Tom Kos (17:11), Dave Palnau (17:12), Harold Gable (17:23) and Paul Vas (17:25).

DEARBORN also will have problems regaining its cross country supremacy over the Tigers as the Belleville reserve unit posted a 19-39 victory.

Belleville carries a 5-2 league record into today's conference meet at Cass Benton Park. The meet is scheduled for 4 p.m.

Belleville will also join a host of other area schools on Saturday at Ann Arbor Pioneer to compete for the Class A regional championship.

The first 10 finishers at the regional run who are not members of a qualifying team will also advance to the state finals while the top two teams will qualify out of the regionals for the state.

Belleville gal cagers are routed by Plymouth

Belleville girls' cage Coach Paddy Lynn will have to go back to the drawing boards and figure out a way to keep her prolific scorer, center Kathy Berbee in the game.

Miss Berbee, was slapped with five fouls and left the match in the third period against Plymouth which overpowered the centerless Tigers 40-17 last week.

Plymouth leaped out in front 12-2, then held on to a 20-8 halftime margin before handing Belleville its third loss in four starts.

"IT WOULD have been a different kind of game if Kathy hadn't fouled out," said Miss Lynn, "we have a lot of things to work on."

Belleville is one of six teams that will compete in the district Class A playoffs to be held next month at Ypsilanti High. The tournament will be staged from Nov. 21 to 27.

If the Tigers manage to get past their district rivals, they will advance to the regional. However, Belleville is pitted against some of the top teams in the area including, Ann Arbor Pioneer and Huron, Wayne Memorial, Westland John Glenn and the hosts.

which has to be a record. The T-Birds had completed only one pass in the entire first half.

BOB LORRAINE, who got the call from quarterback Mark Verrot for 11 carries, picked up 37 yards, the tops for the Tigers. Meanwhile, though Verrot connected on six of 10 passes they accounted for only 37 yards.

"We were aggressive in that first half," explained Emerson, "We looked like a completely different ball club in the second half."

According to VA

Medical care of veterans hits record high

Medical care of Vietnam Era veterans is at an all-time record high with nearly 141,000 per year treated as bed patients in veterans hospitals throughout the country, including Western Wayne County residents, according to a recent report issued by the Veterans Administration (VA).

This is about 10,000 more than in 1973 and 22,000 more than the total number treated in 1972.

Outpatient or ambulatory care also is at a record level, with 2,282,000 Vietnam Era veterans visiting VA outpatient facilities for treatment during the fiscal year ending July 1, 248,000 more visits than in fiscal 1973.

THE NUMBER of all patients treated in the 161 VA hospitals passed the million mark for the first time in fiscal 1974. The total of 1,065,192 includes 1,043,293 treated in the VA hospitals, plus 21,899 VA patients in non-VA hospitals.

Ambulatory or outpatient clinic care soared to more than 12.2 million visits in fiscal 1974, including almost 10.5 million to VA facilities and 1,808,646 to private physicians in the VA fee-for-service program.

Some 253,320 veterans received dental treatment from VA, about 13,000 fewer than in fiscal 1973. The total included 156,355 from private dentists under the VA hometown program and 78,966 from VA dentists.

The growth in nursing home care includes an ever-increasing number of World War II veterans in the 65-and-over age group. VA cared for 18,137 veterans in community nursing homes and for 10,324 in the 84 VA nursing home units in fiscal 1974, an increase of about 3,000 from the previous year.

THE NUMBER of veterans in the 18 VA domiciliary homes declined from 22,094 to 19,922.

Of the 1,043,293 patients treated in the VA hospitals, 861,108 were medical and surgical, including tuberculosis, and 182,185 were psychiatric.

The 171 hospitals admitted 21,083 veterans for drug dependence, of whom 13,425 were addicted to opiates, almost entirely heroin. This was about 2,000 more than in fiscal 1973 but much below the 6-month total of 22,775 from Jan. 1, 1971 to June 30, 1972.

There have been 63,103 inpatient admissions to the VA hospitals for treatment of drug dependence since the agency began opening its specialized drug dependence treatment centers Jan. 1, 1971. Of these, 76 per cent were for addiction to opiates. The 71 VA hospital alcoholism treatment units admitted 43,513 patients in fiscal 1974.

THE AVERAGE daily number of tuberculosis patients in the VA hospitals is the lowest in history: 910 out of an average daily patient census of 81,450. This figure for TB can be compared with 1,408 in 1973, 1,750 in 1972 and 15,645 in 1952.

The daily census of psychiatric patients in VA hospitals dropped slightly from 27,034 in fiscal 1973 to 26,836 in fiscal 1974. These are divided about equally between the psychiatric wards of general hospitals and the 32 VA psychiatric hospitals.

Part of the cost of care of 12,452 veterans in the state veterans home domiciliaries, 6,933 in the state home hospitals, and 7,790 in the state home nursing homes, was borne by VA.

The agency's hospitals placed 11,850 patients into community care homes, exclusive of nursing homes, in fiscal 1974, about the same number as in fiscal 1973.

Store displays antique cards

A luxurious new Hallmark card and gift center has opened in the Lakewood Shopping Center, Van Buren Township's newest and currently largest commercial development. Candlestick Cards and Gifts, although open since Aug. 5, is planning an opening celebration on Nov. 2, said Elaine Stoops, store manager.

Each customer will receive a 2-ounce box of Russell Stover candy, plastic "Betsey Clark" shopping bag and a circus coloring book for the children. There also will be a drawing for 14 prizes. The grand prize is a $25 gift certificate which can be used in any department of the store.

Part of the opening celebration plans include ear piercing by a registered nurse, performed free with the purchase of $9 gold ball studs.

Mrs. Stoops said the store will display a selection of rare antique greeting cards on loan from Hallmark Cards, claiming to own the largest and most valuable collection of antique cards in the world.

The store will offer Hallmark greeting cards and a complete collection of other social expression products. There will be cards for every occasion and a wide selection of other Hallmark products including stationery, note paper, playing cards, gift wrap, party accessories, candles, calendars and a full line gift department.

The new shop is completely carpeted. A discriminating interior decor in an orange and brown scheme offers luxurious shopping surroundings. The unique arched store front has prompted favorable comment and was designed by the owners.

The shopping center offers free parking for 1,150 cars. A K-mart store anchors one side with a Chatham Supermarket on the other in the 216,000 square foot Lakewood Shopping Center.

When fully completed the shopping center will have restaurants, a pet shop and a full complement of fine ladies' and men's clothing and shoe stores.

Lakewood Shopping Center is located at Rawsonville Road and I-94 in Van Buren Township.

Statistics show more vacations close to home

Are you wondering where your neighbor went for his summer vacation?

If statistics, compiled by the Automobile Club of Michigan (AAA), hold true, he may have been one of thousands of state residents who stayed near home during the past season.

An upsurge in the number of Michigan residents vacationing near home — a by-product of unemployment, inflation and the energy crisis — helped make the summer of 1974 more profitable for most state tourist enterprises than the previous summer.

INCREASED IN-STATE promotion and advertising by Michigan's regional tourist associations also contributed to summer business increases, the club reported. "Requests by Auto Club's

1.1 million members for routings in the Lower Peninsula increased 19 percent during the months of June through August as compared to the same period in 1973," said Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager. "For Upper Peninsula destinations, routing requests were up 10 percent during June, July and August over last year," he added.

Only east Canada — including Ontario — showed a bigger gain as a travel destination for Michigan AAA members. East Canadian routings increased 25 percent during June through August over the same months in 1973.

FOLLOWING A generally disappointing winter and spring tourist season, mainly the result of the energy crisis, key state tourist attractions and resort towns indicated that business got off to a slow start in June. Increased vacation traffic during July and August, however, put many tourist operations 10 to 15 percent ahead for the season over last summer.

A survey of state tourist associations shows west and east Michigan officials reporting exceptionally good summer seasons. In southeast Michigan and the Upper Peninsula, tourism officials indicated that business overall was running slightly behind last summer.

"The resurgence of travel by Michigan motorists this summer definitely related to gas again being in plentiful supply," Ratke said. "Our records show that after a 10-month energy crisis slump, Michigan tourist travel started picking up in April as fears of gas shortages eased."

The high price of fuel plus nationwide 55 m.p.h. speed limits were probable reasons why a significant number of Michigan tourists found their home state an especially appealing place to vacation this summer, Ratke said.

A DECLINE IN the number of out-of-state tourists was the reason Greenfield Village officials gave for a 16.5 percent attendance drop in July and a 12 percent decrease in August. The Detroit Zoo also cited a decline in non-Michigan visitors in explaining its five percent summer attendance drop. On the plus side, commercial attractions in the Irish Hills reported an overall 20 percent business increase during June through August.

Despite the increase in Auto Club member routings to the U.P., the Upper Peninsula

Travel and Recreation Association, while avoiding specific estimates, reported that summer business was at below-normal levels. Mackinac Bridge crossings were down two percent for June, July and August. The Iron Mountain Iron Mine recorded a 10 percent visitor drop for this summer, and chamber of commerce officials at Sault Ste. Marie estimated that summer tourism was down eight to 11 percent.

ATTENTIVE LISTENERS—The Van Buren Public School District recently sponsored a School Luncheon Week program at the Belleville High School for parents of attending students. The event presented an opportunity for faculty and parents to meet and discuss school matters and facilities. Three attentive listeners at one of the discussion sessions were (from left) Edward Steinman, supervisor of guidance, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paas, parents.

AUDITIONING FOR PLAY — Debbie Smith, Belleville High School senior, is shown auditioning for a part in the high school's upcoming presentation of "The Diary of Anne Frank," a powerful drama about eight people hiding out from Nazi troops during World War II. Performances are scheduled Nov. 22-23 at the high school auditorium.

'Anne Frank' is high drama

This November, in the tradition of its past successful all-school productions, Belleville High School brings the powerful drama, "The Diary of Anne Frank," to the Belleville stage.

This is a play based on the actual diary of a young girl, and its moving commentary on war and its impact on human beings.

"The Diary of Anne Frank" gives an account of the changes wrought upon eight people hiding out from the Nazis for two years during World War II and reveals the thoughts and expressions of people living under extraordinary conditions.

Work toward the production of the play began Oct. 7 at the Belleville High School when a meeting of more than 100 interested students was held. During that week, production committees were created and additions were held.

Karen Sinkus, director, with Louise Pitcher, assistant director, and Glenn Curtis, technical director, are working with more than 20 other faculty members and many high school students to prepare for the performance of "The Diary of Anne Frank" on Nov. 22-23.

Students and faculty now are rehearsing and preparing costumes, publicity, props, make-up, tickets, patron lists, ushering schedules, sets, lighting, sound and programs.

Tickets for the performances are available in the lobby of the Belleville High School Auditorium for both Friday and Saturday performances.

The ticket office will be open from 2:30 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and donations are $2.

Seeing the play will be a rich and rewarding experience and this Belleville High School production will be one that you will not want to miss, school officials promised.

Rotary to dance for fall

Into water use

Billing gripes spark investigation

Belleville city officials are continuing their investigation into a major water bill dispute and reported huge discrepancy in the amount of Detroit-supplied water paid for by the city.

The Belleville City Council ordered the investigation at a recent session when the city's water department problems were disclosed.

The council heard protests from Belle Villa Townhouse residents over their recent high water bills.

THE CITY OF Belleville buys all its water from the Detroit Water Department and bills users to cover costs, said James E. White, city treasurer.

From May through Aug. 1, Belleville paid the City of Detroit for 49 million gallons of water while receiving payments for 24 million gallons.

White told the council it is not possible to determine exactly how large a financial loss it represents but conceded that the water department now is in the red.

White added that approximately four million gallons can be written off of the 24 million missing as normal water loss, leaving 20 million gallons to account for.

Of that figure, roughly eight million gallons are in dispute between the city and Belle Villa Township residents. The residents association at the development has paid only a third of the original bill for 11 million gallons.

COUNCILMAN ELLIS Amerman and other city officials pointed out that a recent water main break is assumed to be responsible for a majority of the remaining 12 million gallons. Less than one million gallons went for fire fighting during the quarter, White estimated.

The water main break was discovered and repaired June 21. It is not known when the break actually occurred.

Jean Adams of 965 Sumpter Rd., representing the association, told the council, in protesting the high water bills at the township complex, that the normal quarterly water bill for the complex is $748, or $22 per unit. The current bill received amounts to $3,558. Mrs. Adams added that the bill for all of last year was $3,000.

The area water line serves both the Belleville Estates Trailer Park and Belleville Adult Park and the Belle Villa

Townhouse complex. Water runs through a master meter, located at the trailer parks, then through another meter, located at the development.

CITY OFFICIALS INCLUDING Belleville Mayor Royce E. Smith, Councilman and Water Commissioner Ellis Amerman and Department of Public Works Supervisor Anthony Talaga and representatives of Fruehuf Co. developers of the township project, are investigating the possibility of a water leak between the meter and residential development. "The investigation still is under way," Talaga said. "We are endeavoring to determine if a leak exists in the area, or if it is an unusual amount of water used by residents of the Belle Villa Townhouse."

Hot luncheon program may come to Romulus

A hot lunch program for students attending the Merriman Elementary School in Romulus may soon become a reality.

The Romulus Board of Education at its recent meeting took under advisement a review of the proposed equipment needs to install the hot-lunch operations.

At the Oct. 14 session of the board of education the equipment needs for the new program were discussed at length. School Principal Barr estimated the installation costs of the required equipment to be from $10,000 to $11,000.

On the motion of board member Hulen Yates, who was supported by board member Ronald Christensen, the board took the project under advisement pending the determination of actual costs.

To ease crowded jail

Supreme Court studies bond plan

A plan which would allow defendants in minor criminal cases to post cheaper bonds, releasing them from jail and easing overcrowding of the Wayne County Jail, has been promised quick consideration by officials of the Michigan Supreme Court.

The plan, proposed by Recorder's Court Judge George W. Crockett, was urged upon the Supreme Court by a delegation of officials from Wayne County who met with Chief Supreme Court Administrator Einar Bohlin in Lansing on Oct. 9.

CROCKETT outlined his proposal in a meeting called by the county board of auditors to discuss the constant problem of overcrowding at the jail.

Under Crockett's plan, defendants in minor criminal cases would be allowed to post a cash amount equal to 10 percent of the bond that has been set.

This would provide an alternative to the present system involving bail bondsmen who require collateral valued at the full amount of the bond, which many defendants cannot furnish.

The plan would apply only to persons charged with offenses carrying a maximum penalty of less than 14 years, and would not include those suspected to be potentially dangerous.

IF THE Supreme Court approves the plan, it will become a major part among other efforts to control the jail population, said Cross.

Another effort, he said, is a Recorder's and Circuit Court review of cases where bond was set below $1,000.

County college to hike tuition

Residents in Western Wayne County who intend to enroll in the winter 1975 semester beginning Jan. 6, 1975 at Wayne County Community College (WCCC) should plan to spend $1 more per credit hour for tuition than was paid by students this term.

The college has raised its tuition fee from $10 per credit hour to $11, in addition to adding a registration fee of $2 and a laboratory fee of $5 for certain science and technical courses.

The decision to raise tuition costs was reached at a recent meeting of the WCCC Board of Trustees.

BOARD MEMBERS said the increases were necessitated by new state guidelines which will require that the semester length for all community colleges be 16 weeks. WCCC currently has a 15-week semester, but the longer period will begin with the winter term.

The latest price hike is the second tuition increase in the 5-year history of the college. Tuition was $9 per credit hour when the school first opened in 1969. Later it was raised to $10 by state mandate and tuition remained at that level until the most recent increase.

WCCC remains one of the lowest tuition colleges in Michigan, and senior citizens 60 years of age or older will continue to be admitted free of tuition payments.

In other recent action, the WCCC board approved the appointment of Dr. David W. Friedrichs to coordinate the work of WCCC's Institutional Self-Study Committee to recommend improvements in college organization and operation toward the attainment of full accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The college is presently a candidate for accreditation.

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS—R. Lynne Hamilton, president of the Van Buren Board of Education, explains various school operations to Kathie Turrentine, senior high school parent. The meeting took place at a recent School Luncheon Week conducted at Belleville High School.

Incumbent Republicans ready for election bid

Election campaigning in Van Buren Township is increasing in interest and activity as two opposing teams of candidates, battling for township administrative posts, vie for voter approval in the Nov. 5 general election.

Voters in the township will elect a supervisor, township clerk and township treasurer to 2-year terms and two trustees to 4-year terms on the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

The incumbent Republican office holders are seeking new terms as the Gollwitzer Action Team, a self-described "team of local people continually improving in experience and personnel."

BATTLING for re-election with Republican Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer, who is seeking his third 2-year term, are:

Patricia Cullin, 44, who is seeking her second 2-year term as township clerk. She and her husband, reside at 13375 Lenmoore Ave. and are the parents of four children. She is a former member of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees, serving from 1970-72, and has worked in various county government positions for eight years.

Mrs. Cullin, who received 569 votes in the August primary election, will be opposed by Doreen Craven, a Democrat.

KENNETH R. Barks, 26, making his first bid for elective office, is seeking the township treasurer's post. He resides at 13578 Lenmoore Ave. and has been a community resident for 16 years. Barks currently is employed by Morris Levine associates Inc. of Detroit, consulting engineers for the township. He also served as a precinct delegate in the 1972 election.

Republican incumbent trustees Dominick W. Blend and Stephen J. Kuchta are seeking new 4-year terms on the township board.

Blend and his wife, Madelyn, reside at 11696 Juniper Dr. He is a retired executive from Calumet and Hecla where he was a director and vice president of operations. He holds a doctor of laws degree from Athens College in Athens, Ala. and attended Iowa State Teachers College.

BLEND, WHO currently is township police commissioner, was first elected trustee in 1970.

Kuchta, a community resident for 37 years, was first appointed to the township board of trustees to serve the two remaining years of the 4-year term of Patricia Cullin who resigned to run for the township clerk in 1972.

He resides with his wife, Eileen, and three children at 16001 Haggerty Rd. Kuchta, who is active in the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce, is a member of the township's planning commission and the township's community development committee.

Gollwitzer, first elected supervisor in 1970, is a retired executive from the Kelsey-Hayes Co. He holds bachelor of science and master of science degrees in mechanical engineering.

GOLLWITZER and his wife, Margaret, are the parents of two children. He will be opposed in the Nov. 5 Election By Democrat Martin W. Birk, 59, of 6381 Gilmore, a former township supervisor.

Birk heads a team that includes Doreen Craven for clerk, Dorothy J. York for treasurer and Jerry Maton and Thomas Kelley for trustees.

In formally announcing the Gollwitzer Action Team, the supervisor said:

"The Gollwitzer Action Team is a Van Buren Township team for local people. We are not running with anyone from Washington, Lansing or Wayne County. We don't owe anyone anything.

"WE HAVE earned respect from people in those places because it is widely known that we are for our people, with no room for doubt. Because we work together as a team, we are effective."

Gollwitzer claimed the community gains by "this team work and this united front. This is why we run as a team."

He expressed hope that his slate will be elected as a team and as such "will be responsible for results."

The candidates on the Gollwitzer team ran together in the 1972 election with the exception of newcomer Barks.
